Your initial assessment will take place during the first session and you and your tutor will record your entry knowledge and individual requirements on your individual learning plan. During the course you will have regular one -to-one discussions with your tutor to help acknowledge and record your progress and achievements.

It is always beneficial to spend time between sessions reviewing the topics covered. Your tutor may also set home - study to help you practice. Listening to or watching films, music, radio and TV programmes in the language would be helpful for vocabulary and accent.

Will there be additional costs?

You will need to bring along a notebook and pens to the first session and will need a folder for your notes and handouts.

What could I go on to do after this course?
