

L2 Award in Digital Promotion Business

Digital marketing is a key part of a business's overall strategy in order to appeal to investors, consumers, and other businesses within the sector.

On average, small businesses invest just 5-10% of revenue in their digital marketing whereas larger organisations can invest up to, and above, 14%. It is essential that digital marketing forms a key part of every business's marketing strategy in order to reach their customers in the right place, at the right time, in the right way. As the technological landscape is ever growing, there has never been a more important time to invest in the world of digital marketing to upskill your business and establish yourself within the industry.
