

Creative Writing 2

Creative Writing 2 offers a versatile platform for developing essential storytelling skills applicable across fiction and non-fiction formats such as novels, scripts, and stage plays, making it suitable for both beginners and those who have some experience with creative writing. Through engaging exercises focused on crafting beginnings and foundational elements, learners will explore creating compelling narratives, characters, and dialogue, culminating in projects such as short stories, scripts for plays or films. This course emphasises practical application and creativity, enabling participants to enhance their writing craft in diverse formats and genres.
