

Creative Writing 3

Creative Writing 3 enhances participants' writing abilities by exploring genre - specific fiction and scripts, emphasising techniques for publishing finished works. Through engaging discussions, practical exercises, and collaborative activities, students will develop and refine their skills, focusing on creating works with commercial potential. This comprehensive approach aims to prepare participants to confidently pursue external publishing opportunities and advance their writing careers.

If you are interested in developing your creative writing skills, book onto one of our courses from the humanities and social sciences offer.
